

19 May 2008

MEMORANDUM

From: NSAWC Range Officer, N58
To: Distribution

SUBJ: 2008 FIRE SEASON RESTRICTIONS

Ref: (a) NSAWCINST 3752.1D Fallon Range Training Complex
(FRTC)Users' Manual

1. Purpose. The purpose of this memorandum is to give notice to all users of the Fallon Range Training Complex (FRTC) that the annual fire season watch is now in effect. Awareness of this condition shall be part of all operational briefs to help insure the safety of personnel and property.

2. Effective 1201 AM 20 May 2008 the following fire season restrictions shall be adhered to.

a. The minimum safe altitude for deploying decoy flares outside the boundaries of a FRTC bombing ranges is 2,000 feet AGL. The minimum altitude for deploying decoy flares over an FRTC bombing range is unchanged, as listed in Section 4 of reference (a).

b. The deployment of paraflares (LUU-2) is restricted to the high explosive impact areas of B-19 and B-20.

c. Use of pyrotechnics and signaling devices are not authorized on public lands.

3. This annual fire season notice will remain in effect until further notice.

L. H. Tawney

Distribution:

NSAWC N01, N2, N3, N34, N5, N6, N7, N8, N9
NASF Operations
NSWC DET Fallon
EOD Det Fallon
Northrop-Grumman (Range Operations Center)
FAA Rep